EFFECTS

Hair, nails, and skin beauty

Biotin, zinc, and selenium contribute to the maintenance of normal hair and nails; zinc also contributes to the maintenance of normal skin

Silica is a trace element naturally present in hair, nails, and skin, and is often associated with tissue vitality and a youthful appearance.

Vitamin B5 has traditionally been used in food supplements as a supportive ingredient for hair health.

Skin hydration and regeneration

Vitamin A, vitamin C, and zinc contribute to the maintenance of normal skin and support collagen formation.

Collagen is the key structural protein in skin and connective tissue, and its hydrolysed form is easily absorbed.

Hyaluronic acid occurs naturally in the human body, where it binds water and supports skin hydration.

Cell protection and antioxidants

Vitamin C, vitamin E, zinc, and selenium contribute to the protection of cells from oxidative stress.
